

HAPPY NEW YEAR, MIRANDA!

I REALIZE THAT RECEIVING A SEEMINGLY ARBITRARY NUMBER OF EMAILS FROM A COMPLETE STRANGER COULD SEEM OVERWHELMING AND ODD. BUT, I THINK STRANGER THINGS HAVE HAPPENED. I DO, HOWEVER, APOLOGIZE FOR THE SURPRISING WEIGHT OF THE PACKAGE. I WONDER HOW YOU GOT IT HOME. YOU PROBABLY HAVE A CAR.

THIS MUCH WE KNOW:

#1: WE DON'T KNOW EACH OTHER.

#2: WE'RE BOTH ARTISTS (WELL, I KNEW THAT ABOUT YOU, NOW YOU KNOW THAT ABOUT ME).

#3: WE'RE BOTH AMERICAN.

#4: WE ARE BOTH UNDER 40 YEARS OLD.

#5: WE LIVE IN DIFFERENT COUNTRIES (SEE NOTE FOR #2).

I DO LEAVE YOU THE CHOICE.

YOU MAY:

A: GET REALLY EXCITED AND INTRIGUED BY THE COMPLETE STRANGENESS AND RANDOMNESS OF THE CONTENT OF THIS BOX, AND BE INSPIRED TO DO SOMETHING WITH IT. (SEE I.)

B: BE MUCH TOO BUSY TO EVEN CONTEMPLATE WHAT IN THE HELL YOU WOULD EVER DO WITH A BOX FULL OF EMAILS. (SEE II.)

C: SOME UNFORESEEN THIRD OPTION, AND THERE IS A STRONG POSSIBILITY THAT A THIRD OPTION DOES INDEED EXIST.

I. DOCUMENTATION OF PAST FUNCTION, RECENT TRAVEL, AND GENERAL ADVENTURES OF ENCLOSED DOCUMENTS:

YOU KNOW HOW TO REACH ME.

YOURS IN LONG-DISTANCE CORRESPONDENCE,
